

Financing adaptation to climate change

CLIMATEFIT aims at boosting finance for climate adaptation. It does so by providing a unique collaborative platform catered to the financial sector and governments. Banks and investors are supported in identifying bankable projects and local governments in the design of adaptation projects with attractive risk-return ratios.

20

Innovative Investment
Strategies

10

Scalable
Investment
Plans

4

Bankable
European Projects

Join leading market players

European banks, institutional investors and investors leading sustainable finance agenda have already joined CLIMATEFIT: Council of Europe Development Bank, The European Sustainable Investment Forum (EUROSIF), Banque des Territoire.

Knowledge Sharing and Advice:

Advice, knowledge, and networking to identify adaptation investment opportunities and deliver sustainable and ESG finance commitments.

Facilitating Connections:

Networking and strategically collaborating with leading governments with investable adaptation projects.

Promoting Best Practices:

Promote best practices of finance and investment in adaptation projects.

Identify

Investment opportunities in climate adaptation and nature.

Influence

Ongoing policy-making, regulation and practice methodologies.

Access

Best practices and innovative tools to climate-proof portfolios and align with EU regulation.

Boosting

Position the European finance sector in a growing adaptation market.

Learn

Exchange with thought leaders in the financial sector worldwide.

Gain

Competitive advantage by leading innovative business.

Contact us for more information

Stella Whittaker, Project Coordinator, World Climate Foundation
stella.whittaker@worldclimatefoundation.org